

CITY OF BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

The City of Bridgeport, CT is now accepting resumes for the position of

SENIOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE.

The City of Bridgeport, CT seeks a Senior Economic Development Associate to join our team in the Office of Planning and Economic Development (OPED). As one of the physically smallest municipalities in the state with only 16.1 square miles of land, OPED is tasked with achieving the most productive use of the city's land without compromising the community's long term potential. Towards that end, the office focuses on brownfield remediation to position formerly developed properties for new uses and redevelopment plans to transition underutilized districts into higher intensity developments. The economic development division works in close coordination with other divisions within OPED including neighborhood revitalization, housing and community development, planning, and land use and construction review including buildings and zoning. All divisions work together to create a livable and sustainable community with strong and diverse neighborhoods oriented towards transit and the city's unparalleled waterfront opportunities.

Candidates should familiarize themselves with the city's most recent Plan of Conservation and Development (<http://www.scribd.com/doc/50471815/2008-Master-Plan-of-Conservation-and-Development-Bridgeport-Connecticut>), with the city's sustainability plan: BGreen 2020 (<http://www.bgreenbridgeport.org/the-plan/>), and with the Downtown Master Plan (www.rpa.org/pdf/Bridgeport\_Downtown\_Final\_Report.pdf).
